WHAT MAKES ONE DIFFERENT FROM THE OTHER?

Rae Fung is a Speaking and Emcee Coach, she coaches entrepreneurs, corporate professionals and students on Public Speaking, Effective Communications Skills, Networking and Personal Branding. She believes that the key to success is in learning how to leverage on our unique strengths and effectively communicating our value to the world.

Having been an emcee and on-screen host for 7 years, Rae has mastered the art of connecting on stage, online, and in 1-on-1 settings. Rae started her freelance career at age 17, putting her in a unique position of working with clients twice her age. She learnt how to market, brand and communicate with people from all walks of life.

Now, Rae runs her coaching business full-time and has been featured on media outlets such as Channel NewsAsia (CNA).

Rae wants to inspire and empower young adults and millennials to chase their dreams no matter their age. There is no such thing as 'too young', and she is the living proof of that.

Rae has a Bachelor's in Communications Degree with Honours from the Wee Kim Wee School of Communication and Information.

Rae has worked with clients locally and globally, including Tech HR, People's Association, POSB, Duty Free Singapore, MediaCorp, MINDEF, Samsung, NTU and many more.

Rae uses her online social media community of over 10,000 on LinkedIn and Instagram to spread her message and share her story.
